What is TRY?

“TRY: Non formal learning approaches and self-management practices” is KA2 Strategic Partnership, supported by Erasmus+ from EU, coordinated by Aventura Marão Clube (AMC), in partnership with two more NGO’s, three Vocational Education Schools and 3 municipalities, from Portugal, Poland and Romania. The aims of the project are to increase the quality and relevance of VET by introducing Non Formal Education in VET teaching methods, introduce self-sufficient school principles in VET organisations in order to diminish the dependency on state funding and provide students with hands-on experience, developing their practical, technical and business skills. From 16 -18 October 2017, Regional Volunteer Center (RVC), from Kielce, Poland, received the 1st Transnational Project Meeting of TRY, with representatives from all partners. In this first encounter, they got to know each partner a bit better, presented the project and it’s aims and goals, discussed task related issues and defined the next steps to be taken. RVC is the Polish NGO partner of TRY project. CHECK RVC WEBSITE - <http://centrumwolontariatu.eu/>

Who is AMC?

Aventura Marão Clube (AMC) is a non profit association created in 1993 with the aim to promote healthy lifestyles among the population, especially youth in Amarante. Nowadays they run 4 different sections: Mountain Bikes, Kayaks, Traditional music and Fair Trade. Under the last one AMC opened in 1999 the first Portuguese Fair Trade Shop and participates in promotion and training actions at national and international youth programs and also organizes, since 2000, international work camps about various topics. From 2009, runs Casa da Juventude de Amarante, the local youth center/hostel.
